LEARN

“10% of Canadian universities rank among the top 200.”

– The Times Higher Education's 2015-2016 World University Rankings

Canada's secondary schools and postsecondary institutions are consistently recognized in top international rankings and our students repeatedly score high on international tests. Our highly qualified educators and field-leading professors have created a learning environment that nurtures creativity and intellectual development.

Canadian universities perform an estimated 38% of all R&D in Canada. Although home to just 0.5% of the world's population, Canada produces 2.8% of global scientific research.

What's more, Canadian universities offer excellent facilities, from wired libraries and Olympic-quality sports facilities, to public concert halls and art galleries.

LIVE

“Canada ranked 1st for Best Quality of Life.”

– U.S. News Best Countries Ranking (2016)

Named as the world's most welcoming country by the 2015 Global Nation Brands Index, Canadians are known for being friendly, open and tolerant – since many trace their roots to every corner of the globe.

Ranked first in the 2015 Global Peace Index, international students benefit from all of the freedoms Canadians enjoy: respect for human rights, equality and a stable and peaceful society. It's really no wonder that Canada has some of the happiest people on the planet because of long life expectancy, high average income and robust social ties.

SUCCEED

“Canada ranks 1st among 16 countries for alumni employment.”

– HSBC report on the cost of international university education (2015)

International students are often eligible to work both on and off campus during their term of studies. This gives students the opportunity to move beyond academic learning, to apply and test their skills in real workplace settings. In fact, many programs are designed in collaboration with potential employers and offer work placement opportunities to students.
